BILLY WILDER THEATER
AT THE HAMMER MUSEUM

Directed by Cecil B. DeMille and starring Gloria Swanson, this whimsical silent adventure film turns the tables on social class. A butler's devotion to an aristocratic family is upended when the group is shipwrecked on an island. Featuring spectacular costume designs, the film captures a moment in time when the professional film costume designer was in ascendancy.
Live musical accompaniment!

Q&A with UCLA Professor Deborah Nadoolman Landis and design historian Michelle Tolini Finamore.
