New Option: Seminars

- New limited experiment for 2018 (no more than ten)
- Exists outside the one-role rule in 2018
- Vetted separately from regular proposals
- One or two facilitators propose a topic.
- All seminars will be on Sunday in 2018.
- If accepted, 8 people can join as participants, and up to 12 people can sign up to audit.
- Participants submit 5- page position papers in advance (less a case study than something addressing or posing a question). If they do not submit paper, they are dropped from seminar.
- All participants read papers before conference.
- Session consists of discussion, working groups, breakout groups or whatever the facilitators decide will work best.
